Orbit

The Orbit Table is a versatile and stylish choice for modern spaces, blending simplicity with contemporary design. Its round top is supported by a visually light yet sturdy frame crafted from durable White Oak. With four exposed legs and clean, understated styling, the Orbit Table brings a natural charm to any setting.

Available in three sizes—two coffee tables and one side table option—it is thoughtfully proportioned for commercial environments, from office lounges to collaborative areas. The White Oak frame can be stained to complement your design scheme, while the tabletop comes in classic white with an extensive range of custom colour options to suit your preferences. The Orbit Table's combination of practicality and timeless aesthetics makes it a perfect addition to any modern space, offering a refined and inviting focal point.
