

Trax

workspace
commercial furniture

Trax

Trax is the ideal task chair for every commercial environment, designed with an advanced synchro mechanism featuring height, seat depth and back tilt adjustments. Available in both mesh and upholstered seat options, Trax has the solution to resolve every users requirements and a style to compliment every space. The mesh back provides a standard for airflow, with the mesh seat being an extension of this comfort. For the traditional user the upholstered seat, allows an almost unlimited choice of colour and texture without comprising on relaxation and enjoyment.

The back support defines the aesthetic line of the chair which also connects a height adjustable lumbar support to ensure comfort for all users. Trax is the perfect combination of operability and functionality.

SPECIFICATIONS

Options	Mesh seat Upholstered seat
Features	Mesh backrest Height adjustable lumbar support Back tilt adjustment with tension control Seat depth adjustment Gas height adjustment
Arm options	Mesh seat - height adjustable arms or no arms Upholstered seat - 3D arms or no arms
Base	Polyamide base
Seat upholstery	Available in a wide range of fabric, leather or vinyl
Accreditation	AFRDI Blue Tick certified
Warranty	10 years

